The Newspaper Ad of the Year winner to be announced this Thursday night

"We have a $10,000 winner!" says NAB's Lexie Ribot, of The Newspaper Ad of the Year competition.

Last week the judges (Paul Catmur, Paul Nagy, Guy Roberts and Rob Jack) deliberated for several hours over the many press entries to shortlist 15 finalists. Then with Sir John Hegarty and James Mok's remote votes, all scores were tallied to reveal a clear winner.

See all the finalists on display and find out who has won The Newspaper Ad of the Year this Thursday 9th July at 6pm, Hopetoun Alpha in Auckland.

Apart from the great print work, there will be student work on display, as well as free booze and a chance to win $1000 if you pick the winner on the night.

To RSVP or for more information contact kerry@nabs.co.nz.
